Report Strikes Are Spreading In France Now

Communist-Led Strikes Add To Growing French Labor Troubles

HEAVY INDUSTRIES CHIEFLY AFFECTED

By JOHN E. LEE
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Sept. 16.—Strikes continued to spread through France today when 400,000 Communist-led metal workers walked off their jobs for the afternoon in demand of higher wages.

The work stoppage by the metal workers who are members of the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor added to growing French labor troubles.

The strike at the Renault Motor plant now is virtually complete and other industrial workers went out in protest to the arrest of rioting strikes yesterday.

The shutdowns have affected air travel and no air France planes have taken off from Paris fields since yesterday afternoon. A craft arriving at Orly field today had to be unloaded by volunteers.

Other strikes develop. Other strikes broke out in Lyon, Brest and in other key centers.

The strikes principally affect heavy industries. More than half of the walkouts are only token work stoppages called for one day to press labor demands for wage increases.

Police in Paris and other trouble centers were alerted to guard against any renewal of rioting such as that which occurred yesterday in the French capital.

An estimated 4,500 aviation factory workers clashed with Paris police after assembling in downtown streets near the offices of their company.

More than 100 persons were injured in the melee. Casualties included 78 police, none of whom was hurt seriously. Some 30 strikers also were injured.

The labor unrest which has been mounting steadily for weeks took an upward surge yesterday with workers engaging in widespread protests against rising prices.

Pa Newc Observes

Another ingenious gentleman has made himself an outdoor camping outfit that will permit him and his family to enjoy a cheap vacation as they travel over the countryside. The visitor to the city purchased an abandoned automobile and has completely equipped it as a home on wheels. The trailer was observed in the city on Wednesday.

A third report of apple blossoms in September has reached Pa. News's desk. Mrs. W. C. Shanahan, 465 West Madison avenue, tells of apple blossoms on a tree in her yard.

The sign pointing the road to East Brook at the intersection of Green Avenue and East Street has been removed and is lying on the ground, Pa. News found in a visit to the area.

Local leaves in many sections resemble the look of foliage following the first frost of the season. The need of rain is quite apparent in both the city and rural sections. Local streams have dropped considerably in the past few days.

Another new stamp of a commemorative issue went on sale on Wednesday at the Post Office. The stamp honors the life of Clara Barton and the Red Cross. Four stamps commemorating special events go on sale during this month.

Mrs. Antonette LaRocco, of 192 South Beaver street, reports that the apple tree on their place, has again brought forth a bumper crop. At the beginning of summer there were quite a number of apples on the tree.

Believe Soviet Stalling Purposefully On Berlin

BERLIN, Sept. 16.—(INS)—Allied sources in Berlin expressed belief today that the Russians are purposefully stalling negotiations for lifting the economic blockade.

These quarters feel that the Soviets hope the winter will cripple the airlift of the western Allies and force Allied concessions before the Berlin issue can be considered by the United Nations.

The Soviet agency ADN predicted, however, that there will be another session of four-power representatives in Moscow on the Berlin question this weekend.

The newspaper Neues Deutschland said it is improbable that the Berlin matter will be discussed immediately in Paris when officials gather there for the opening of the U. N. General Assembly Tuesday.

The British-licensed Social Democrat reported that the Russians are reclaiming war-time German army tank and anti-aircraft ammunition in violation of Four-Power agreements.

Washington Shows Pessimism Over Berlin Situation

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—An air of pessimism over the Berlin blockade negotiations pervaded Washington today although London reported that another East-West meeting may be held in Moscow soon.

Diplomatic quarters in the American capital feel little further progress can be made in Moscow and expect the matter to be turned over to the United Nations assembly when it meets next Tuesday.

Dispatches from Britain reported, however, that another meeting may be held in the Russian capital before Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov leaves for the UN assembly meeting.

Lions Present Charter To Club

Local Club Has Charge Of Charter Night For New Fredonia Club

MOOREHOUSE IS TOASTMASTER

New Castle Lions Club had charge of the program which was presented Wednesday evening at Shuster's, near Greenville, when the charter of the new Fredonia Club was presented. The club was sponsored by New Castle Lions Club, and is the fourth club to be organized by them in the district this year, the others being located at New Bedford, Volant, and Stoneboro.

Sam Rashid, vice-president of the New Castle Club presided and introduced Melvin Moorehouse, of the New Bedford Club, as toastmaster. Western Baxter of the Fredonia Club gave the address of welcome, and Arch Hillard, deputy district governor gave an interesting talk on Lionism, and what it means to a community.

Presents Charter. Arthur Meek, past district governor, presented the state charter, and District Governor Fred Ander, of Oil City, presented the international charter, both of which were accepted by James F. Rhodes, the president of the new club. The new club is starting with 34 charter members.

S. Glenn McCracken, in behalf of the New Castle Club, gave the new club a gavel and bell, and set of flags. During the evening, a splendid group of musical numbers was given by William W. McCombs and Mrs. Harry Helmick, with Mrs. S. Glenn McCracken as accompanist, and group singing was led by McCombs.

Father Is Found Guilty In Death Of Small Son

ERIE, Pa., Sept. 16.—(INS)—Ralph J. Hoge, 28, was found guilty of second degree murder early today by a jury which deliberated about 15 hours.

Hoge was accused of beating his six-year-old son, John, with an army belt last May, causing the boy's death.

The case went to the jury just before noon Wednesday, and the verdict was returned after last midnight.

The sentence will be passed later. The former army lieutenant of Harbor Creek, Pa., testified he spanked his son for refusing to tell where he had hidden a toy hammer. The father said the boy's last words were "I love you, Daddy."

Indian Troops Meeting With Stiff Resistance

Continue Drive Into Hyderabad However, And Report Steady Advance

ONE REPORT SAYS ROADWAYS MINED

By J. B. SARINI
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

NEW DELHI, Sept. 16.—Dispatches from Poona reported today that troops of the Indian army have run into stiff resistance east of Homnabad in their drive to advance into Hyderabad.

However, a communique from the Poona headquarters of the India army said that advances were made on all fronts and "important objectives secured."

The communique also declared that the city of Rajasur on the important Scholapur-Secunderabad invasion route from the west had been reached. Rajasur is near Homnabad.

Homnabad is situated 85 miles west of Hyderabad city, capital of the princely state which has been invaded from all sides by Indian troops.

Headways Mined. The Hyderabad defenders were said to have mined roadways heavily in the Bezwada sector and by this means are slowing up the advance of Indian units attacking from the east.

Many Razakars—Moslem volunteers—were reported to have surrendered to Indian columns advancing on Zahirabad.

Chief successes of the Indian forces were gained in northwestern Hyderabad where a 6,500 square-mile segment was sliced off from the princely state.

Within 75 Miles. In addition to the capture of Homnabad the Indian forces drove to within 75 miles of Hyderabad city from the east with the capture of Suriyapet.

Nine Weeks For Report Cards In Schools Of City

Change Is Made From Six Week's Period—Other Board Action

Report cards for the elementary schools will be issued every nine weeks this term instead of every six weeks.

Dr. Frank L. Burton, superintendent of schools told the school board Wednesday night he felt the nine week period was often enough for reports, that it would eliminate the work of two report periods, and that it would be tried in the elementary schools this year.

Michael Dentist Named. Dr. Leonard Stutz was elected school dentist for half time for the school term.

City Councilmen Joseph D. Alexander and James Gibson appeared before the school board in explanation of the failure of council to act jointly with the school board in the increase of salaries in the city treasurer's office. They explained that it was an oversight and would not occur again.

The board accepted the explanation and agreed to the increased salaries. The school board bears half the expenses of the city treasurer's office inasmuch as the city treasurer is the collector of school taxes.

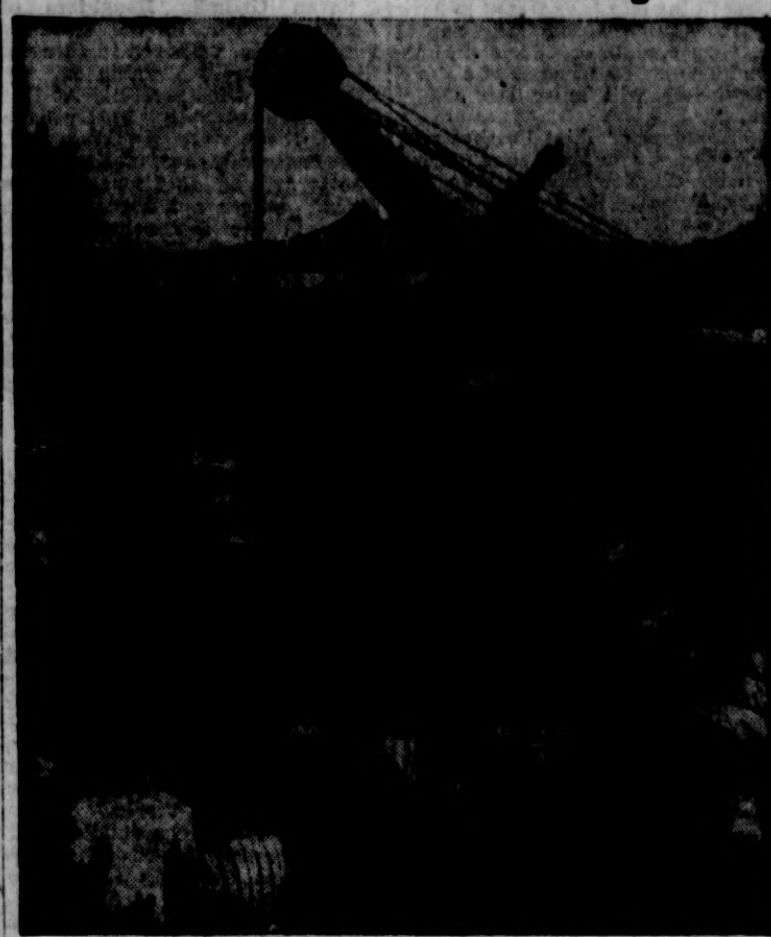

Milk For Youngsters. Mrs. William L. Cosel and Mrs. J. C. Brandon appeared before the board and asked that milk be provided for the youngsters in the elementary schools. They explained the milk would cost the youngsters three cents per portion and the state and federal government would pay the balance.

The matter is under consideration. The school board bears half the expenses of the city treasurer's office inasmuch as the city treasurer is the collector of school taxes.

Reporting for the Athletic Committee. Dr. A. L. Hoffmaster recommended the payment of transportation for the junior varsity football team. The recommendation was adopted.

Poultry Growers Seek Cut In Price Support

Refuses To Tell Congress If He Is Communist

HARRISBURG, Sept. 16.—(INS)—Poultry growers of 13 northeastern states today called for a general cut in the government's farm price support program.

Leslie S. Hubbard, retiring president of the Northeastern Poultry Producers Council announced that the organization has sent telegrams to President Truman, Governor Dwyer, Agriculture Secretary Brannan and the chairman of the house and senate agriculture committees asking "sharp downward revision" of price supports.

"They have artificially kept food prices too high and have balked the farmer's right to stand on his own feet and do business in a free and open market," Hubbard said.

The protest, authorized by poultry producers annual convention at Harrisburg, was the first action taken by any major farm group to establish lower levels in the price support program.

Hubbard described the system as "a hopeless botch, forced through congress without consideration." The council asked that supports be "lowered to a level which will provide insurance against disaster rather than a guaranteed fat profit through artificially high prices."

"Farmers have had seven or eight good years," Hubbard said, "and if they are not ready to stand on their feet without government supports now, they never will be."

The first step is to put agriculture back on a competitive free-market basis and abandon the artificial government-supported type of agriculture economy."

India Dispute Will Get Before United Nations

PARIS, Sept. 16.—(INS)—The United Nations Security Council voted eight to zero today in favor of a provisional agenda including the Hyderabad-India dispute.

China, which had been defeated in a posthumous move, together with Russia and the Soviet Ukraine, abstained.

With the adoption of the agenda, Council Chairman Alexander Cadogan, of Britain invited the Indian and Hyderabad delegates to the council table.

Belgium also had sought an adjournment of the special session. Prior to the meeting, the Hyderabad foreign minister charged that India launched the invasion because "its leaders apparently want to carve out a new empire in south-eastern Asia."

China asked adjournment of the meeting until Monday because of the absence of the Chinese foreign minister. Belgium requested that the session be postponed until Saturday.

British Delegate Alexander Cadogan, supported by France, argued against postponement, pointing out the seriousness of the situation in Hyderabad.

Death Sentence In Niece Slaying At Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—George A. Neill, 22, was sentenced to the electric chair today for the sex-slaying of his 11-year-old niece. Judge Byron A. Miller pronounced the death sentence after a three-judge court refused Neill's motion for a new trial.

The former marine, who received a disability discharge, had pleaded insanity. The body of his niece, Isabella Mallon, was found in a vacant lot in September, 1947.

East-West Battle Seen Dominating Paris U.N. Sessions

By PIERRE J. NUSS
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

ABOARD THE S.S. AMERICA, Sept. 16.—(INS)—The East-West conflict is expected to dominate the Third General Assembly of the United Nations when it meets in Paris next week.

Delegates also expect the issue of a German peace treaty to be injected during the meeting.

American delegates en route to the assembly claim they have no instructions to raise either the question of Germany as a whole or the Berlin blockade disputes.

They claim that Secretary Marshall, who is flying to Paris, is the only one who can make a decision on either points. France and Britain probably will not bring up the matter without consulting the United States.

Turned Down Two Months Ago. Two months ago when U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie announced that the assembly would meet in Paris, he was met with a resounding "no" by the Soviet Union.

Delegates fear that Lie's attempt to bring the issue before the security council was justified.

Some delegates claim that the widening dispute between the west and Russia in Berlin is likely to throw the matter before the assembly.

U. S. delegation spokesmen point out that the most urgent problem is to solve the Berlin problem, a matter for the security council rather than the assembly.

A meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers on that point is regarded as preferable to immediate intervention on Berlin by U. N.

The roster problem in the minds of the American delegation is the issue of the peace treaty with Germany.

Butler High To Bring Band To Friday's Game

Football fans will see an extra program at Taggart stadium Friday night.

In addition to the football game between New Castle and Butler, there will be a massed band demonstration.

Butler will bring a 50-piece band with the team, with Don Gibson directing. The two bands will mass in the center of the field for the playing of the Star Spangled Banner, with Mr. Gibson directing.

The New Castle band has a couple of novelties worked out for the intermission. Marking the tribute to the air force this week, the band will form in airplane formation and will play a salute to the air force.

Another specialty will be a "bounce" number. This is said to have the kind of rhythm and melody that has the spectators doing a drum accompaniment with their feet.

See Some Hope Of Averting Threat Of Phone Strike

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(INS)—Hope for settlement of the threatened strike of CIO Telephone Equipment Workers loomed today when negotiators announced they will resume bargaining talks at 2:30 this afternoon.

The strike has been set for 6 a. m. Friday.

A Western Electric company spokesman announced resumption of sessions following an all night parley which broke up about 7 a. m. this morning.

The telephone equipment workers originally asked for a 31-cent an hour wage boost. The company countered with hikes ranging from eight to 14 cents an hour. Twenty-one thousands workers are involved.

Typhoon Strikes Eastern Japan In Wake Of Deluge

Several Hundred Americans Out Off By Landslides Caused By Storm

EVAQUATE PERSONS IN PATH OF TYPHOON (BULLETIN)

TOKYO, Sept. 16.—(INS)—Several hundred Americans, mostly women and children, were out off from the outside world tonight by typhoon-created landslides that isolated two hotels in the mountains south of Tokyo.

The landslides thundered down the sides of narrow defiles as a screaming typhoon struck eastern Japan in the wake of a nine-hour tropical rainstorm, accompanied by high ocean waves and rising rivers.

U. S. Eighth Army headquarters reported that the American Freightliner Governor Bibbo, loaded with highly explosive ammunition, was trapped in the harbor of Shimizu by Japanese barges and fishing boats which had broken loose from their moorings.

The small craft were floating dangerously near the freighter and one report said the Governor Bibbo's explosive cargo had been slightly damaged.

Isolation of the Americans in the mountain resort hotel 70 miles south of Tokyo, was disclosed by the Eighth Army.

The army has been billeting dependent American women and children in the hotels while they await regular housing assignments in the Tokyo and Yokohama areas. Both hotels are situated in the narrow Hakone mountain pass.

One hotel was reported to have an eight-day food supply but for the marooned Americans when it was cut off by the landslides.

Rail service throughout the area was suspended shortly after dark.

Spare Ribs Record Set By Truckers

Lawrence County Chapter FETA held Annual Corn Roast At Pennell Home

As a run-of-mine item of food, spare ribs rank high. But prepared by an expert, spare ribs become an ambrosial delicacy worthy of the best efforts of epicures.

That's the kind of spare ribs the Lawrence County chapter, Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association, had on hand at the annual corn roast.

The corn roast was held at "Jollicol," the Ne-shanock Falls home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pennell.

Mrs. Pennell always prepares the menu, and the menu is always the same. Any change would bring revolt. Spare ribs, barbecued in a manner that has you wanting to tip your hat to the next pig roast, are running around.

Roast corn, potato salad and a variety of vegetables. A combination that each year sets new records for food consumption. Last night 75 pounds of spare ribs disappeared, and the crowd numbered about 50. That gives you a rough idea.

Following the corn roast the guests enjoyed the lawn facilities of the hosts.

The dignity in Boston is on a child's scale, the order of enthusiasm there is sometimes slightly pale. But not today, the Boston fans are whooping in their glee, at what their teams are doing now and what will likely be. It looks as though for serious games they won't have far to roam. The Sox and Braves are in the lead, and as they stay in the lead, a substantial series looks to be in the air for Boston's play, and Boston's fans are all agog. It's seventy eight today.

The Rally Day song, composed by Mrs. Paul Wellor for the New Castle Superintendent's Council, was sung.

Dr. F. B. McAllister Comes Back Tonight

Former First Baptist Pastor To Speak At City-Wide Bible School Rally

Doctor "Mac" comes back to New Castle tonight.

Dr. Frederick B. McAllister, former pastor of the First Baptist church will address a city-wide Bible school rally tonight in First Presbyterian church. Those who remember his forthright, dynamic sermons in First Baptist will certainly want to be on hand.

The Bible class rally tonight is a collaboration of the Sunday school superintendents of the city and the Men's Christian Fellowship of Lawrence County. Every Bible class in the city is expected to have representation at the rally and if perchance some one decides to attend who isn't a member of a Bible class, who will know the difference?

The doors of First Presbyterian will open at 7:30 and a song service will be in order between then and eight o'clock. At eight the rally service will start and if Dr. McAllister is anywhere nearby as good as he was when he presided in New Castle this service will be one that will send the folks home with a warm feeling under the vest.

First Presbyterian church will probably be filled tonight. It is for all the Bible classes of all the churches of the city, men, women and mixed classes. This fact in itself doesn't guarantee a crowd.

If this didn't guarantee a crowd, Dr. McAllister, now pastor of the Ninth Street Baptist Tabernacle in Cincinnati should provide the necessary fillip.

C. D. Of A. Hears Address By State National Officer

New Castle Among Seven Courts Addressed By Miss Frances Maher, Of Kane, Pa.

ELLWOOD CITY COURT IS HOST

Seven Catholic Daughters of America courts in the state of Pennsylvania, gathered in Ellwood City Wednesday evening for the first fall district meeting. At this time approximately 800 women heard their state grand regent, Miss Frances Maher, of Kane, Pa., who is also national vice-supreme regent, deliver a timely message, given in the auditorium of St. Agatha's church.

New Castle was represented by twenty-eight members last evening. Other courts attending in the district, were Allegheny, Rochester, Beaver Falls, Butler, Midland and Ellwood City, the latter being court host.

State Regent Speaks

Introduced by the district deputy, Mrs. Sarah Beatrice of Ellwood City, the state grand regent, Miss Frances Maher, summoned all good Catholic women to meet in unity and dignity for the honor and glory of God.

"We need good, strong, Catholic women," she said. "Our work carries the light, for with faith in God and in ourselves, we set an example and inspire others to follow. Happiness and peace will be within us as we gather together, and get closer to God and our church, with various fellow Marys the Blessed Virgin."

Miss Maher gave a detailed and very interesting report on her trip to Pasadena, Calif., in July, while attending the C. D. of A. convention. Every state in the union was represented. Dignitaries from the entire nation were present to assist and guide these women who are leaders of individual courts in their respective states.

An elaborate program was conducted through the entire 13-day session and important business matters, such as resolutions, per capita tax, dues, etc., were topics discussed.

Pennsylvania Is Third

"We now have 1,453 C. D. of A. courts throughout the United States," Miss Maher announced proudly, and of these Pennsylvania claims 146 courts, and gains third place in the national scale.

She urged the continuation of the good work, and in closing sent out an appeal for the courts to devote their time in sending clothing to the needy people in Europe. This is to be one of the C. D. of A. national projects. "Look to the future," Miss Maher concluded, "and as C. D. of A. members we will be able to accomplish this."

The welcome to the entire assembly was given at the start of the program by Mrs. Rose Ruschle, grand regent of Court 901 of Ellwood City. Remarks were heard from Mrs. Sara Beatrice, the district deputy.

Father Paul Speaks

Rev. Fr. Francis Paul, of St. Agatha's church, speaking in behalf of the C. D. of A. chaplain, extended his welcome and greetings.

A delightful musical program was then enjoyed with Miss Mary Jane Bauer as master of ceremonies. An accordion solo was offered by Carl Scotchman, and little Carol Elene Rocco sang several selections. Miss Agnes Zacheo, and Audrey Zahosky, both gave excellent piano solos, and a tap dance trio routine performed by Patty Lamenzi, Josephine Carol and Nancy Howell closed the program.

A brief period of singing was featured, and a reception line was formed. A dainty lunch was later served buffet style, the table beautifully arranged, with fresh flowers as centerpieces. The Ellwood City C. D. of A. social committee as hostess, poured.

Social Period Held

The door prize was awarded to Mrs. M. J. McDonald, of Midland, Pa., who also has the splendid record of only missing three C. D. of A. meetings in a period of 27 years.

Guests present were: Mrs. Mary Heaney, deputy of Allegheny; Mrs. Jessie Stenger, grand regent of New Castle's court; Mrs. Emma Renner, grand regent of Rochester, Pa.; Mrs. Angeline Pullion, grand regent and deputy of Beaver Falls; Mrs. Mary Greenawalt, grand regent of Butler; Mrs. Elizabeth Collins, grand regent of Midland; Mrs. Rose Ruschle, grand regent of Ellwood City; Mrs. Sara Beatrice, deputy of Ellwood City, and Miss Catherine Kearns of Kane, Pa.

Miss Maher will be tendered a buffet lunch, in New Castle on Wednesday, September 29, with the local court as hosts of the evening.

Umpire Is Shot By Officer When He Flees Arrest

PENNSAUKEN, N. J., Sept. 16. (INS)—A 30-year-old professional baseball umpire was shot in the head early today after breaking away from police who had arrested him on a morals charge.

Capt. Willis Perkins said that Frank Severa, an Eastern league umpire, had been accused of attacking a 14-year-old girl last Christmas.

Perkins declared that he and Patrolman John Strykowski went to Severa's home to serve a warrant sworn out by the girl's mother.

Fleeing Arrest
The police captain said Severa was placed under arrest at his home but broke away as the group started to leave for police headquarters.

Perkins asserted that two warning shots were fired over Severa's head as the umpire fled through the marsh near his home.

A third bullet struck Severa in the head. He was rushed to Cooper hospital in Camden where he was reported in serious condition.

Hospital attaches said the bullet entered over Severa's right eye and came out at the right temple.

Army Increases Quota For Youths

Youths In 18-Year Group Will Be Processed At Once, Recruiter States

In order to speed up the processing of 18 year olds volunteering for one year periods, the local U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station announced today that immediate action will be taken on all applications for the above type of enlistment. This action is prompted by a recent increase in the statewide quota normally allotted from Second Army Headquarters.

Former procedure required that the volunteer make an application at the local Recruiting Station and then wait notice that he should report for final processing and be enlisted. Arrangements have been completed this week at the local Recruiting Station for the 18 year olds to be enlisted the day they make application for a one year enlistment. However, this does not prevent the applicant from requesting several days delay before he is actually shipped to a basic training center.

Advise Youths On Three-Year Hitch

Men Enlisting For Full Term Held Better Off Than One-Year Enlistees

Comparison of the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force's current personnel procurement plans indicate that the young man who elects to enlist for a three year or longer term of service in the Regular Army or Air Force, is far better off in the long run, because upon completion of his enlistment, his obligation under the Selective Service Act of 1948 is completely fulfilled upon receipt of his discharge.

The youth who intends to wait until he is drafted, or who enlists for either one year, twenty-one months, or two years, is obligated under the Act, to join a reserve component for a period ranging from four to six years, upon completion of his period of service.

Complete details pertaining to enlistment in the U. S. Army or U. S. Air Force may be obtained at the local Recruiting Office, located at Room No. 303 Post-Office Bldg., New Castle, Pa.

Members of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church launched their fall program Tuesday evening. Sixty members and friends, seated in groups of four, gathered around small flower decorated tables in the church dining room.

The program, under the direction of Mrs. Frank Hay, opened with Mrs. Paul Fombelle leading the devotional period. Special music was presented by Barbara Rogers and Wallace Fombelle. A pageant, carrying out the Missionary theme for the year, "Thy Word a Light as the Stars for Ever and Ever", was given by Mrs. Stanley Reese, Mrs. Paul Walters, Mrs. Mont Rogers, Mrs. Harry Gettings, Mrs. Clair Lutz and Mrs. Frank Hay.

Special feature of the evening was the introduction of past presidents of the society. Each gave a three minute summary of the highlights in her term of office. Mrs. Hay then presented each with a beautiful corsage, as a token of appreciation from the group.

After a short business session with Mrs. Clair Lutz presiding, the social committee served delightful refreshments, followed by a social period.

The next meeting will be a luncheon at the church, October 12, at 12:30 p. m.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

lean efforts of the Republican majority in Congress.

Can't Be Justified

It is obvious that no sound concept of government can justify such a situation. Even in the days of "penny" gathering taxes for Syria, this sort of thing would have been considered impossible. Yet we have been enduring it for a long time and strenuous efforts are being made to continue in power for another four years the elements that have brought this condition to pass. We have seen a chief executive of the United States obstinately reject the attempts of Congress to alleviate it, necessitating the enactment of relief legislation over a veto.

The one hundred forty-five million people of the United States are neither so ignorant, neglectful nor recalcitrant that they require so much government at such prices as we have been paying. In fact, they have been suffering rather from too much government, particularly of the centralized federal sort. They have had this burden superimposed on their load of State and local taxes.

What does the gigantic corporation of the United States return in the way of dividends to its shareholders? Does all our tremendous budget make life easier and brighter for the majority of the people? Or does it merely act as a brake upon progress and prosperity? Why, for example, should the people of the State of Ohio pay out more money for the support of federal payrolls in their State than they pay for the operation of their State government?

Much of the raving and ranting about the sins of Big Business in the past was justified; there was a time when certain elements of Big Business were contemptuous of laws and the rights of the public. Most of these sins have been eliminated, either voluntarily through enlightened self-interest, or by process of law. But the sins of Big Business have been overshadowed in recent years by the more flagrant and dangerous evil—Big Government.

The solemn truth enunciated by the wise men who made our Constitution remains unchallenged and is vindicated today—that the least government is the best government. When the tax bill equals the food bill it is time to talk less about Big Business and more about Big Government.

Archery is rapidly increasing in popularity in the United States, according to the National Recreation Assn.

A STRONG BACK

A strong back is a good thing to have. Animals which walk on all fours do not have much back trouble. The human animal seems to have trouble in standing erect on two feet.

Back ache is a pretty common ailment. Sometimes it is worse in the morning and gets better during the day. Sometimes it hurts worse at night.

There are many causes for back ache. Some are serious and some are not.

Perhaps the best way is to have a medical examination. The doctor may be able to find what the trouble is.

Paid is usually a warning signal. A little investigation may find what is causing the pain.

It is not a very good plan to take pain pills. That is something like covering up the red light at a railroad crossing.

IN VIEW OF NEWS

watched by U. S. constabulary and by the western zone police under Dr. Johannes Stumm.

These policemen, incidentally, have been screened so thoroughly and so often that the vast majority are above reproach. It is a fact, moreover, that the wave of lawlessness and crime that followed Germany's defeat receded many months ago.

A comparison with prewar days might well prove that western German delinquency at present has been curbed to a surprising degree. Still and all, in a city as large as Berlin, honeycombed with ruined buildings that make excellent hideouts and still saturated with the violent legacies of the Hitler regime, an uprising never is out of the question completely.

General Clay and his predecessor in Berlin, Gen. Joseph T. Mc-

Narney, never have overlooked this danger and have taken adequate measures to meet it should it arise.

If the Soviets who favor this sort of thing believe that a "push" could be engineered while the United States Army slept, they are far off the path of truth indeed.

New Cyclotrons Revealed To Have High Volt Energy

Are Small in Size, But 400 Million Volt Energy Same As Large Cyclotrons

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 16.—(INS)—The Carnegie Institute of Technology's new synchro-cyclotron may be small in size, but its 400 million volt energy will pack a wallop equal to cyclotrons in the same energy class weighing as much as two to four thousand tons more.

As a result of improved overall magnet design and a radical departure in the design of the pole tips (parts which help shape magnetic fields), Carnegie Tech's new machine will weigh a relatively light 1,500 tons.

To Increase Operation These improvements in design will also enable Carnegie Tech scientists to operate the atom smasher at a magnetic field beyond that obtained in other cyclotrons.

By machining "hills and valleys" into the pole tip faces, or "shims" as they are commonly called, useful radius of the machine has been extended to 95.5 per cent of the 141.66 inch shims.

Other cyclotrons are said to maintain only 85 to 90 per cent of their respective shim radii.

Machining these "hills and valleys" will give the Continental Machine and Foundry company of Wheeling, W. Va., plenty of headaches, Carnegie Tech scientists predicted, for they have asked that they be machined to a plus or minus tolerance of 0.0025, or roughly the thickness of a human hair.

Dr. Martin H. Vos, of Carnegie Tech, is largely responsible for design of the machine, which he incorporated in his thesis for a doctor's degree which he received at Carnegie Tech only last June.

The cyclotron will produce mesons, tiny mysterious particles found in cosmic rays. The mesons are short-lived particles which are knocked out of an atom nucleus when the latter is bombarded by a very high energy cyclotron beam.

Inside the cyclotron, particles called ions revolve around the center of a field and move faster and faster in ever-increasing circles away from the center.

Ions are useful in research, but the big job is to keep them moving at a tremendous rate of speed away from the center until they can be removed from the atom smasher.

Carnegie Tech researchers expect their new machine will do the job just about as easy comparatively as rolling off a log.

Some butterflies, like flowers, have fragrance. These smell of sweet grass, jasmine, syringa, magnolia, orange blossoms or balsam.

Egg Production

Sets New Record

HARRISBURG, Sept. 16.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's farm flocks established an all-time record for egg production during the month of August, it was reported today by the State Agriculture Department.

Hens on state farms produced a total of 210,000,000 eggs during the month, 1,000,000 more than the previous record for August set last year. The new mark was achieved despite a two per cent reduction in the number of layers, the department said.

Individual production, averaging 14.45 eggs per layer, also was a new record.

Before Europeans lived at the Cape of Good Hope, letters were left for passing ships under a rock which is now in the walls of the Cape Town post office.

Plan Open House At Can Company

American Can Co. Plant
Joins In Plans For Observance Of Pennsylvania Week

It was announced by J. Lepore Matthews, chairman of the industrial committee for the observance of "Pennsylvania Week" September 26 to October 2, that the American Can company will feature open house at its plant in this city on Thursday, September 26. Alan K. Schmidt, manager of the local plant, stated that the company was glad to cooperate in the celebration of "Pennsylvania Week" and extended a cordial invitation to the families of employees and the citizens of Lawrence county to visit the plant on September 26.

The New Castle plant is one of 66 manufacturing plants covering the United States. It was established here in 1907. They produce tin cans for almost every purpose, and the manufacture of this great variety of tin containers will be of fascinating interest to all. Further information on the hours of inspection will be announced later.

LUCKY NUMBER
KANSAS CITY, Mo.—(INS)—Some people of superstitious nature won't walk under a ladder. Others worry when they break a mirror. Superstition even takes hold of some people who stop at hotels in their travels. So report Kansas City hotel managers. One hotel manager said: "There are many salesmen who will wait all day for Room No. 711. They believe it is lucky."

St. Paul at Ephesus.

"He that keepeth the law, happy is he."—Proverb.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

Mob violence is rebuked and justice administered by law and order are upheld in this lesson by an Ephesian official who was clear-headed and who believed in free speech.

The official, whose name we do not know, was probably the most important man in Ephesus. He was called, in St. Luke's story in the Book of Acts, the town clerk, but literally he was the city's secretary.

The decrees to be proposed were drafted by him and other officials, and money left to the city committed to his charge, but as the power of the public assembly declined under imperial rule of the Romans, the importance of the secretary's office was enhanced because he was in closer touch with the proconsul than the other city magistrates.

To get a clear picture of the situation in Ephesus, in which city Paul spent three years, we must tell of the effect on Paul's preaching there. Many were converted and had brought their heathen books to be burned.

Before Paul's sojourn in Ephesus all the people had worshipped the goddess Diana. A beautiful temple had been erected in her honor—which was considered one of the wonders of the ancient world.

There dwelt in the city a silversmith named Demetrius, who hearing and seeing how fast this Christian religion was spreading, feared that his business of making silver shrines to Diana would be completely ruined by it.

Demetrius called all the silversmiths together and alarmed them by his warnings that they might lose their means of livelihood. Not only in Ephesus, said Demetrius, but all over Asia, this faith was spreading, due to Paul's teaching. Even the temple of Diana was threatened, because of Paul's teaching that there could be no gods made with hands.

With one accord the workmen rushed into the city streets crying, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians," and great also was the confusion they caused. Many of the people seeing the men and hearing their cries, knew not what it was all about, but joined in, as the mob spirit prompted them.

The workmen seized two Christians, companions of Paul, Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians and rushed with them into the theater which was the largest building in Ephesus.

"Some cried one thing, and some another," Luke tells us. Paul tried to get into the theater to help his friends, but was held back by fellow Christians who feared he might come to harm.

Alexander, a friend of Paul's, entered and "beckoned with his hand, and would have made his defense unto the people," but they knew he was a Jew and cried, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians," drowning his voice.

Then came the unnamed man, clerk of the town, and he gained a hearing. He pointed out that everyone knew that the Ephesians worshipped Diana, and, "seeing these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet and to do nothing rashly."

"For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess." Paul had never spoken against Diana nor mentioned her. He had said that no true god could be made with hands. If he could have converted them to the worship of Jesus, they would have recognized how worthless their worship of Diana was.

Further, the town clerk said that if Demetrius and his fellow workers had a matter against any man, the law courts were open to them, to plead their case.

Lastly, this unnamed man told the mob that "we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse."

That settled the matter. Most of the people who composed the crowd of rioters probably went home feeling, it was a case of "much ado about nothing." If they could have realized what this religion was that was then sweeping the whole earth, they doubtless would not have gone away so quietly.

The nameless town clerk of the ancient city of Ephesus, therefore stands before us as a defender of the right of free speech and of law and order.

Guided Missiles To Arm Fleet In 2 Years, Forecast

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—(INS)—Rear Adm. Albert G. Noble, chief of the Navy's Bureau of Ordnance, said today that the U. S. fleet would be armed with guided missiles within two years.

Noble, writing in the official Naval Academy publication "Shipmate", explained the Navy's guided missile program, which is under technical supervision of the Applied Physics Laboratory at John Hopkins University.

In regard to training the ships with guided missiles, Noble said: "Short-range guided missiles should be in the fleet within two years. More advanced, longer-range types will make their appearance after a somewhat longer period."

The guided missile program is known in the navy by the code name "Bumblebee".

Youth Indicted In Fatal Shooting

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 16.—(INS) Joseph Manuel, 16, was under indictment today for the fatal shooting of a suburban Wilkensburg man who wouldn't help him make a get-away after a holdup.

The grand jury also returned true bills against the youth on nine counts of robbery, one charge of burglary and nine of pointing firearms.

Manuel is charged with shooting and killing Robert W. Lennon, 40, when Lennon refused to drive him from the scene of a holdup.

Silly Season In Politics Reached Says Sen. Taft

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 16.—(INS)—Sen. Robert A. Taft, Republican majority leader in the Senate, declared Wednesday that President Truman's charge "that I was improperly 'putting the heat' on the National Labor Relations Board only shows that we have reached the silly season in politics."

Taft issued a lengthy five-page statement from his office in Cincinnati in answer to the President's criticism of Taft's role in a labor case involving the AFL's International Typographical Union. The senator declared:

"It is not only the practice, but the duty, of every congressman and senator when his constituents allege that some executive department is not doing its duty in relationship to matters in which they are interested, to take up that matter with the executive department concerned."

IF NOT HOME, WHERE?
MORGANTOWN, W. Va.—(INS)—A woman's place may be in the home—but somebody better tell the college co-eds about it. The University of West Virginia reports that while its course in home economics is more popular than ever, enrollment throughout the country has fallen off. According to the U. S. Office of Education, only 11 1/2 per cent of the women students at 336 colleges and universities specialized in home economics during the current school year.

Irrigation has been highly developed in the state of Montana.

Rev. H. H. Grove At E.U.B. Conference

At the Pittsburgh Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, being held this week in Franklin, Pa., Bishop J. S. Stamm, of Harrisburg, Pa., gave a report of the Amsterdam Church Council, from which he recently returned by plane. Bishop Stamm, vice president of the Federal Council of Churches and president of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches, was one of three delegates of his denomination to attend the Amsterdam Council.

Rev. H. H. Grove, pastor of the Emmanuel church, this city, as well as the pastors from the Beaver Falls, Rochester, Freedom, Valencia and Sarver churches are in attendance at the conference, which will close Friday afternoon with the reading of the appointments for the coming year.

One of the first items of business at the conference will be the election of a conference superintendent, as the term of Dr. H. W. Kaebnick, of Somerset, Pa., expires.

Night accidents are responsible for almost two-thirds of traffic fatalities in cities, the National Safety Council says.

Third Member Of Gang In Slaying Given Sentence

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 16.—(INS)—Henry V. Kline, 34, began a 30-to-40-year prison sentence today for his part in the holdup slaying of a Bethel township policeman.

Kline was found guilty of second degree murder after he admitted that he had been the "look-out" during a holdup last March during which Policeman Joseph Chmelynski was shot and killed.

John E. Wilson, 34, was sentenced to life imprisonment, and Edward Dipofi, 23, received a death sentence for the same murder.

Proof Oil For Ships, Cars
And Industrial Motors

BIRMINGHAM — (INS) — After years of secret and highly dangerous research British scientists at Birmingham University have perfected a flameproof lubricant which will enable cars to run for a life-time on one fill-up of oil.

This new discovery also will cut fire risks in aircraft by 70 per cent and will eliminate the risk of fire in all oil-burning engines, including ships, cars, and most industrial machines.

Dr. Maurice Stacey, 40-year-old professor of chemistry, told the Royal Institute of Chemistry that the discovery has "enormous significance."

The basis of the discovery is fluorine—green gas 20 times more poisonous than strychnine—for 50 years a problem for scientists because of its highly dangerous nature.

Have "Tamed" Fluorine
Professor Stacey and his team have "tamed" fluorine and applied it to ordinary lubricants. The professor said that the discovery of the compounds followed work in connection with atomic energy.

He continued:
"Fluorine displaces the hydrogen in hydrocarbons which are the base of all lubricants. By eliminating the hydrogen the oils are made non-inflammable."

"If a motorist is using an efficient oil filter, and his car's oiling system is maintained in full repair, one fill-up of oil could last a lifetime. The oil is naturally unburnable, and unless it leaks out somewhere in the system it just stays there doing its job."

"It is now up to industry to carry on its production. We are convinced that the new discovery can be related to commercial production."

It is not known when glass was invented, but it is thought it originated in Egypt.

A-Bomb On Body

LOS ANGELES — (INS) — Medical men are now studying the effect the atom will have on the body.

Dr. Andrew H. Dowdy, professor of radiology at the University of California at Los Angeles, believes injury to tissue "probably" occurs in two ways. One is direct, the other indirect.

In direct damage, according to Dr. Dowdy, radiation breaks down the tissue's protein molecules. This causes changes in the cytoplasm, which is a basic substance of life. Also, cell membranes may be impaired.

Radiation also alters the genes, those tiny units which transmit the characteristics such as color of eyes from parent to offspring.

Growth May Be Suppressed
It is also assumed that if genes are "radiated," cell division and normal growth will be suppressed.

What medical men would like to know is why radiation stops within and red blood cells from being manufactured in the bone marrow.

In indirect damage, radiation may disrupt the cell's normal activity by changing its environment through interference with circulation of blood.

The circulation nourishes the cell with food and oxygen and takes away waste poisons.

Averna is a small round lake in Campania, Italy, the crater of an extinct volcano whose sulphurous and poisonous odors led anciently to the belief that it was the mouth of Hades.

President Will Address Legion
At Miami, Fla.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16—(INS)

President Truman will address the American Legion National convention at Miami, Fla., in October, it became known today.

The chief executive's appearance before the veterans convention will be the first time a president has addressed the Legion in 15 years.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was the last president to appear before the Legion, at its convention in Chicago in 1933.

Mr. Truman will go to Miami for the week of Oct. 12.

Jefferson Davis and Alexander H. Stephens were appointed provisional president and vice president of the Confederate states, and when elected to office they received all the votes of the 11 states.

UNCHECKED CZECHS

MUNICH.—(INS)—In spite of an increase in Czechoslovakia's border police now aided by armed and uniformed female guards—at least 26 Czech nationals manage to cross into the U.S. zone daily. Most of the refugees report that the Communist government is taking stringent measures to prevent the Czechs from leaving the country.

Around Hollywood

By RUTH BRIGHAM
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 16.—(INS)—Rita Johnson, lying at death's door for days after her strange injuries, was born on Friday, the thirteenth!

And the attractive actress—a popular film personality with lots of Hollywood friends—also met Writer Mike McCausland on Friday, the 15th!

McCausland, who was investigated by police and later released, met Rita when he called at her apartment a month early for an interview. The meeting led to several dates, and, so her friends say, "what looked like romance."

He said he was a free lancer, with his Hollywood stories written for a New York paper. While in filmland, he's been a guest of the Alan Mowbrays.

Conflicting Statements
Tyrene Power didn't cable me (dramatist) but his butler told my cook's cousin that the star was heard to say that when he returns to Hollywood he'd be no more married than he was when he left!

Which is only half married, that is to say, Linda Christian didn't cable me either, but she told my hair dresser she'd be Mrs. Tyrene Power when Hollywood saw her again.

Oh, well, c'est la vie in movie town.

No Brother Act
Scott Brady, who has a future since "Canon City" if he'll just go after it, says there's nothing to the rumors that he and his brother, Lawrence Tierney, are considering a movie together.

The tall young actor said, "I'd like it very much, but Larry has other commitments."

On Honeymoon
Handsome Rory Calhoun and his bride, Isabelita, are spending their honeymoon in the heart of the dude ranch country in New Mexico. The pair left Tuesday morning with the east of Harold Bell Wright's "When A Man's A Man."

Overlooking Bot
Wonder why someone in Hollywood doesn't recognize what a great actor Dan O'Herlihy really is? They continue to introduce newcomers, mostly personalities, while this splendid Irish actor is right under their noses. Dan does a creditable job in "Kidnapped," which all the kids should see. And he appears in "Ocean Waves," "Macbeth." But why confine him to costume roles—when he's so very handsome—and on the right side of 30?

Bath tubs and bathing facilities in the home are comparatively recent innovations—and many houses do not have them now.

Soap was used as long ago as the second century. Castile soap is so named because of the soap factories that existed in Spain as early as the eighth century.

Unavoidably called out of town, with giving birth.

ALL DELIVERIES OF GLASSES WILL BE MADE SEPT. 23 to SEPT. 29 INCLUSIVE

Oak Street Has 86 First Graders

Approximately 25 Are Registered
In School Instrumental Classes

Out of a total enrollment for the first semester at the Oak street grade school of 308, there are 86 registered for the first grade classes it was reported during a visit to the East side school on Wednesday afternoon.

Although this figure is not as large as the number of first timers in other schools of the city, the teachers are kept busy keeping the new youngsters busy and getting them used to school life.

Only one new teacher is on the staff of the Oak street faculty this year, and she is Miss Betty Hovis, who is teaching in the school's only portable building. Miss Hovis, a graduate of Slippery Rock, is teaching first and second graders.

There is only one set of twins attending Oak street this year, and these are Paul and Sammy Tleche, veteran students, who have reached the third grade. Teachers at times have difficulty in their identification.

Instrumental music classes in the school have gotten off to a good start with approximately 25 enrolled and learning to become musicians. The first class was taught on Wednesday by Arthur Canning, city instrumental instructor. Students or their parents furnish instruments in the classes. Other boys and girls are planning to enroll.

The visual education classes of the school have gotten well under way with the boys and girls on Wednesday witnessing the motion picture "The Hare and the Tortoise." Other pictures will be shown during the year.

BUMP ON HEAD

FATAL TO YOUTH

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—(INS)—An apparently minor accident turned into tragedy today for a 13-year-old Philadelphia boy.

The youngster, David Mason, struck his head on the tailgate of a truck while playing with a friend.

Only a slight bruise showed over his right eyebrow and the injury appeared to the boy's mother, Mrs. Herbert Mason, nothing more than a "slight bump on the head."

Later, she found David unconscious in his bed. He died at Presbyterian hospital within an hour from a cerebral hemorrhage.

Blind Man Organizes

Prosperous Business

LOS ANGELES—(INS)—Burns Baker, married and the father of seven children, has overcome misfortune and fashioned a successful business career.

Three years ago, Burns was well established as executive of a bank. His health was excellent—or so he thought. He had no cares except those connected with rearing a large family.

All this changed during the course of a working day. Burns appeared for work at the bank as usual. Soon his sight began to blur. Before the day had ended he was totally blind. A tonsil infection had destroyed an optic nerve. Doctors could not help him. He was permanently blind.

Burns began rebuilding his life from the bottom up. He could type. That was about all. He learned Braille, figured out a way to use a dial telephone, and obtained a Seeing Eye dog.

With the aid of a secretary, also blind, he began a new career as an insurance broker. Policies are made out in typewritten and Braille and mailed to the company.

So successful has Burns become in his profession that he has paid off the mortgage on his home and recently was named president of a club for blind which is known as "Men of Vision."

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. SCOTT

MILLBURN

A "black-top" surface is being applied to the Millburn-Blacktown road which is closed to traffic at the present time. Millburn grange was instrumental in promoting this work which will benefit not only the grange but also the many motorists for whom the road is a convenient route to Grove City.

Mrs. Charles Robinson was discharged from the Grove City hospital the last week after being there for treatment for a bronchial condition.

James Woods again won honors in a cattle judging contest when he placed sixth in the state at the 4-H Club Week at State College. James' picture appears in this week's edition of the Pennsylvania Farmer with the Mercer county championship general livestock judging team.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred King and children have sold their California home and have returned to Pennsylvania. They expect to build in the near future and until their house is completed will make their home with Mrs. King's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Heckathorne. Joan and Peggy Wood were Saturday guests in the Heckathorne home.

Mrs. Gertrude Flynn, of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mayne and Carol and Miss Ann Butler, of Mercer, visited Mrs. Emma Bougher Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Heasley and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ashe, of Sharon, called on Mr. and Mrs. Joe Abbott Sunday.

Mrs. Miralda Rodawalt is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frances Jordan in Mercer this week. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hoagland and William Robinson and his daughter, Ann, called at the Fred Robinson home Sunday.

Maureen Drake, who has been visiting her grandparents, returned home with her father Sunday. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Drake to Beaver Falls last week when they visited the latter's sister, Mrs. R. P. Atwell.

Mrs. Stella Wallace and friend, of Youngstown, C. A. Blumenshine, of Grove City, and H. A. Blumenshine, of Youngstown, were callers of the week in the Harvey Williams home.

Mrs. R. E. Hume attended a luncheon given by Mrs. Thomas A. Greer and Mrs. O. A. Sophor, of Grove City, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Hume transacted business in Pittsburgh Monday. Mrs. Paul Hassler, of Grove City, and her sister, Mrs. Lukehart, and Mrs. E. H. Janke, of Mercer, called on Mrs. Hume recently.

B. W. Travis, of the Simpson Pumping Station force, is a surgical patient at Mercer Cottage hospital. His daughter, Mrs. R. H. Cummings, of Syracuse, N. Y., who has been here the past week has returned home.

The quarantine on the Clair Simpson home will be lifted this week. Patty Simpson was the only one of the family to be ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Winter and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Corp. of Pittsburgh, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fink Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickson Stewart and daughter, Jean, drove to Ford City last week. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stewart were in Ford City Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hartt will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding September 22 with a family dinner at noon and "open house" from 7 to 10 p. m.

Television Line Nears Completion

CLEVELAND, Sept. 16.—A link that will bring network television to Cleveland from eastern cities is nearly completed, the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. announced.

The company reported a long distance telephone and television cable from Philadelphia has reached the outskirts of Cuyahoga Falls, near Akron. It will be joined there before the end of the year with a link extending from Cleveland, spokesmen said.

This will tie together the eastern television network of the Bell system—extending from Boston to Richmond, Va.—and the Midwestern network, connecting Buffalo, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis.

Engineers Plan Annual Outing Here Saturday

Corn Roast And Fish Fry Will Inaugurate Fall Activities Of Chapter

With a well rounded program of activities arranged for the day, the annual corn roast and fish fry of the Mahoning-Shenango Valley Engineers Society has been scheduled for Saturday at El Rio Beach, starting at 2:30 o'clock.

There will be plenty to eat, refreshments, and a wide variety of games, with lots of nice prizes. The committee in charge of the day's arrangements announce.

Reservations are in charge of Charles Goodman of the Pennsylvania Power company.

Start Work On Resurfacing Of Butler Road Today

Work on resurfacing Route 422 near Princeton to Willowbrook near the city line was started today by maintenance workers of the State Highway Department under the supervision of Alfred Martin, superintendent for Lawrence county.

The workmen started today at Princeton and will work east toward New Castle. A base stone is being put on the highway before the top coat of material is applied. During the progress of the work, one way traffic will be maintained. Motorists are urged to drive with caution during the progress of the operations.

It is planned to blacktop the Mt. Jackson road when the same type of material is being transported to the Butler road. The two jobs will keep maintenance crews busy until weather it is reported but it is expected to have the jobs done before winter.

This was revealed in Akron by Dr. Howard E. Fritz, vice president in charge of research for the B. F. Goodrich company. Dr. Fritz said experiments along this line are being conducted in the rubber

He added: "Researchers still are unable to explain scientifically what puts the bounce in rubber, but we believe that such by-products of atomic energy as radioactive tracers will not only help us to solve these and other mysteries, but also will result in better tires and other rubber products."

Dr. Fritz expressed hope that this research also will reveal what occurs when rubber in its original state — soft and tacky when warm, brittle when cold — is stabilized by the addition of sulphur and other vulcanization agents.

Wife Asks Share Of Bank Account

Claims Husband Walked Out With Penn Books For Joint Accounts

OTHER EVENTS

IN COURT HOUSE

In an equity action filed by Josephine Millione she asks that she be given half the joint bank accounts held by her and her husband.

The action is directed at Napoleon Millione, the Dollar Savings association and the First National bank.

Mrs. Millione avers that she and her husband had deposited $953.99 in the Dollar Savings association and $121.37 in the First National bank. In addition there are eight $25 war bonds which Mr. Millione is alleged to have had charge of. Also an endorsement insurance policy of $750, in Mrs. Millione's name.

In her action Mrs. Millione avers that her husband deserted her on August 20 of this year, taking with him the pass books. She asks that he be made to give her half the joint bank accounts and an accounting of any other moneys belonging jointly to the pair.

WANTS JOINT DEED

Hanna M. Wagner has filed an equity suit against her husband, George A. Wagner, of 1905 North Mercer street, in which she asks that a joint deed be ordered for a property on Washneck avenue now held in fee simple by her husband.

Mrs. Wagner sets out that she and her husband owned jointly properties in the first ward. Back in 1944, she alleges, her husband wished to buy a piece of property on Washneck avenue and wanted to mortgage the first ward property for $8,000. She demurred until the promise was made that the new property would be joint in title also. The mortgage was consummated and the property purchased. Later Mrs. Wagner says she found her husband had entered into the new mortgage agreement for $7,500, paying off the old mortgage and clearing the title to the Washneck avenue property from the St. Regis Paper company. Mrs. Wagner asks that the title to the Washneck avenue property be made jointly.

SENTENCES IMPOSED

Judge John G. Lamoree handed down four sentences Wednesday morning. Oliver Lewis was fined $100 and costs and given 30 days in the county jail for driving while intoxicated. He will be released in three days if the fine and costs are paid.

Edgar J. Schlachter was fined $100 and costs and ordered to make restitution of $800 upon a charge of larceny by employee.

Jennie Robertson and Willard Robertson, pleas to assault and battery, were fined $35 and costs and placed on probation for one year. The fines must be paid in 60 days.

Youngstown Police Chief Holds Job By Court's Decision

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 16.—Three Mahoning county judges ruled unanimously Wednesday that Police Chief Edward J. Allen Jr. of Youngstown may retain his post by denying an injunction sought by Peter Lapella. Lapella had asked for the chief's dismissal because Allen had been an Ohio resident for less than a year. The judges ruled that the police chief held office at the discretion of the mayor and that there was no violation of state civil service laws. The case will be appealed to a higher court.

Be glad you are not a centipede. The National Safety Council says that occupational accidents alone cause approximately 250,000 finger injuries and 60,000 toe injuries each year—usually the result of handling materials and "tag" jobs. About 9 per cent of such injuries are of a permanent nature.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

QUESTION: "Who usually wins the arguments in your home?"

ANSWER: (By Mrs. Emanuel Nolan, 7234 Cottage St., Phila., Pa.) "It all depends. On the subject of coffee, for example, there's never any argument. My husband and I agree that new, richer, 'custom-roasted' Boscul is the finest coffee we've ever tasted." Right! Only Boscul is "custom-roasted" before blending, by electronic control... to give you more flavor in every cup, more cups to every pound.

The Canco Golf League of the American Can Company enjoyed a big field day recently at Castle Hills course and then adjourned to the New Penn Hotel for a banquet. Featuring the after-dinner speakers were Alan K. Schmidt, plant superintendent, William Donkin and Glenn Taylor, along with Lloyd Harris, chairman of the prize committee.

The Robins were the 1948 champions, having defeated the Sparrows in the playoff match 194 to 64. The champions were captained by Jack Murphy, the losers by Bill Rowe. Members of the championship team were Captain Murphy, Joe Bonfield, Gordon Taylor, R. Morgan and Stanley Teles.

A short business meeting was held prior to the banquet and resulted in the following being elected for the 1949 season: president, Jack Murphy; secretary and treasurer, Bill Schoenfeld; fairways and rules committee, Al Ellis, Joe Bonfield, Ray Todd and Bill Rowe.

Prizes Are Awarded

Lloyd Harris gave out prizes to the following winners: blind bogey, Bill Schoenfeld; low medal, Jack Murphy, net 67; high medal, Ralph Plante, net 64; least number of putts, Dick Morgan, 28; longest drive, Joe Bonfield; shortest drive, Harold Pitzer; closest to pin on 3, 7 and 11, Alan Schmidt, Fraley and Rowe; low medal on holes 12 and 16, Jimmy Guido, Morgan and Rowe; most points for season, Joe Bonfield. The members of the winning team received elasti-glass rainjackets.

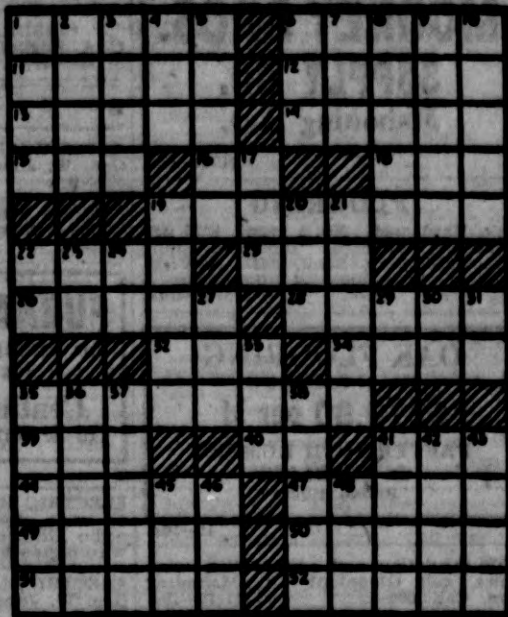

The banquet and field day was a big success due to the untiring efforts of the following men: dinner committee, Jimmy Guido, Stanley Teles and Gordon Taylor; prize committee, Jack Murphy, Bill Ellis, Lloyd Harris and Jimmy Daniels.

The Western Conference emerged gleaming from its purifying bath today, having ruled out 11 sophomore athletes who were declared ineligible three months ago.

Color Photography Exhibit Coming To Western Penna.

Photographers and artists in this district will be interested to know that the Venango Camera Club of Oil City is bringing to western Pennsylvania one of the best color exhibits in the country. All accepted color slides of the Third International Salon of Photography of Columbus, Ohio, will be shown in Oil City on Saturday, September 18. Admission to the show will be free.

The showing will include both pictorial and nature slides in color, and will be held in the Belles Lettres Club auditorium on 405 West First street, Oil City, at 8:30 p. m. Chairman of the Columbus Salon, Fred Braunlin and Theodore Brumfield, APSA, also of Columbus, will lecture on the pictures shown and answer any questions concerning the Salon and the qualities of the winning color-photos.

The exhibit will bring to western Pennsylvania the finest color transparencies in the world. Entries have been received from every State in the Union as well as from many foreign countries. The Columbus Salon is one of about 20 international exhibits sponsored annually by various camera clubs and interested groups in the United States. The exhibit annually attracts about 2,500 entries from which the judges usually select about 400 as having sufficient merit to be accepted for salon showings. At Oil

City the slides will be shown by projection.

The Venango Camera club committee in charge of arrangements for the showing includes George Steck, chairman, Rev. H. Bielenberg, who is himself a color exhibitor and lecturer, Frank Bayless, A. S. Watson and William Troxell.

the city when special programs will be presented during the Sunday school hour with visiting speakers to be presented in many sessions. The plan is to have one-third more in attendance next Sunday than attended on rally day last year.
